

House Resolution No. 774

Whereas, Nancy Norfleet of McKelvey Elementary School in Maryland Heights, Missouri, has recently enjoyed the special honor and distinction of being named McKelvey Elementary Teacher of the Year, a most impressive accolade which will be bestowed upon her on April 25, 2003; and

Whereas, Nancy Norfleet is a longtime, well-respected member of the faculty at McKelvey School in the Parkway School District, where she has earned the admiration of numerous students, parents, and fellow staff members due to her high standards of professionalism, her intelligence, and her faith in children; and

Whereas, currently a fourth grade teacher, Nancy Norfleet has taught for fourteen years in the Parkway School District at McKelvey School, during which time she has experienced tremendous success in impressing on thousands of young people the value and importance of a good education; and

Whereas, Nancy Norfleet has offered a risk-free learning environment in her classroom that provided students with twenty-six years of continuous positive experiences which allowed for the success of all students; and

Whereas, Nancy Norfleet earned a Bachelor's degree at Southwest Missouri State University in 1976 and a Master's degree at National-Louis University in 1994; and

Whereas, Nancy Norfleet is a valuable member of the Creve Coeur American Legion Auxiliary, the Suburban International Reading Association, and the Board of Directors for the Parkway National Education Association; and

Whereas, Nancy Norfleet has been blessed with a wonderful husband, Glen Norfleet, and three fine children, Melissa, Laura, and Leslie:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in commending and applauding Nancy Norfleet for her energetic and enviable record of service to education which has truly earned her this Teacher of the Year recognition, and further extend to her our very best wishes for continued success in meeting the educational needs of our youth; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Nancy Norfleet, as a measure of our esteem for her.
